2 Corinthians 4.13-5.1

But just as we have the same spirit of faith that is in accordance with scripture—‘I believed, and so I spoke’—we also believe, and so we speak, because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will bring us with you into his presence. Yes, everything is for your sake, so that grace, as it extends to more and more people, may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

So we do not lose heart. Even though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day. For this slight momentary affliction is preparing us for an eternal weight of glory beyond all measure, because we look not at what can be seen but at what cannot be seen; for what can be seen is temporary, but what cannot be seen is eternal.

For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

Mark 3.20-end

The crowd came together again, so that they could not even eat. When his family heard it, they went out to restrain him, for people were saying, ‘He has gone out of his mind.’ And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, ‘He has Beelzebul, and by the ruler of the demons he casts out demons.’ And he called them to him, and spoke to them in parables, ‘How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but his end has come. But no one can enter a strong man’s house and plunder his property without first tying up the strong man; then indeed the house can be plundered.

‘Truly I tell you, people will be forgiven for their sins and whatever blasphemies they utter; but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit can never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin’— for they had said, ‘He has an unclean spirit.’

Then his mother and his brothers came; and standing outside, they sent to him and called him. A crowd was sitting around him; and they said to him, ‘Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside, asking for you.’ And he replied, ‘Who are my mother and my brothers?’ And looking at those who sat around him, he said, ‘Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother.’

Anniversary of Grenfell Tower fire

We will be marking this on Thursday at the Eucharist at 12.15 and you may also wish to use this prayer:

Gracious God, We pray for all those affected by the fire at Grenfell Tower, for the wounded, the traumatised and for those who grieve. In despair bring hope, in injury bring healing, in fear bring comfort, in our helplessness be our strength. In your mercy, hear our prayers in Christ's name. Amen.

Changes ahead

As you may be aware David is leaving All Saints in July to become vicar of Cotham & St Paul's Clifton in Bristol. Her last service as Parish Administrator is on Sunday 1 July.

David's farewell services

David's last Sunday on 15th July will be marked with a thanksgiving Eucharist at 10am followed by a BBQ in the vicarage garden. There will be a choral evensong the previous Sunday.

Prayer Matters : 10th June 2018 : Trinity 2

Please keep in your prayers this week:

Our “village”. Following last week’s parish weekend, may the bonds and friendships experienced be further strengthened, especially as we move towards a period of interregnum. Those affected by natural disasters, such as the volcanic eruptions in Guatemala and Hawaii. All those in training for all forms of Christian ministry and especially Moira Roberts as she is commissioned as a Southwark Pastoral Auxiliary at the SPA Commissioning and Rededication service in Southwark Cathedral tomorrow. May all those doing this valuable work be richly blessed.

Child workers - June 12th is the World Day Against Child Labour. Today, throughout the world, around 218 million children are forced to work. They do not go to school and many do not receive proper nutrition or care. They are denied the chance to be children. More than half of them are exposed to the worst forms of child labour such as work in hazardous environments, slavery, illicit activities including drug trafficking and prostitution, as well as involvement in armed conflict. May world leaders work together to eradicate totally this terrible situation.

Carers everywhere - in this National Carers Week we pray for and especially recognise the contribution they make to families and communities throughout the UK.

The Community of St Margaret the Queen - for the joy of loving Christ, building up of community and good relationships between all parties involved in the building development. The Community asks for guidance in presenting their plans to the DAC.

Charity of the week: 4ALL: Building Community in West Dulwich, the local community charity founded by All Saints members. Prayers are requested for the many volunteers and the staff who give their time and skills, and whose interest, commitment and enthusiasm are so central to the organisation’s work and for the many people, young and old, who benefit from the activities such as the BTT after-school clubs and Sing 4All. 4-all.org.uk

Those to be baptised: Alissa Campbell.

Those who are sick or in need: Gina Vaughan, Mary Goodlad, Ronald Alcock, Cass, Ruth Bennet, Beth, Hyacinth Brown, Wisdom KariKari, George Farmer, Zee Zee Gwaite, Jan Ross, Katie Gedge, Anthony Backs, Tishawah Binns, Orlando Gordon, Dazlyn Dawkins, Lucille Simpson, Jenny Pick, Ben, Thomas Hardy, Susan Mullen, Nick Penrose, and those who support and care for them.

Those who have lately died: Emily Rixon (Hazel Bradley’s great-niece), Janet Flawn-Thomas; and those who mourn.

Those whose year’s mind falls at this time: Raymond Cornelius Jensen (2012), Ada Cripps (2003), Mary Fox (1997).

Commemorated this week on 16 June - Richard of Chichester, Bishop

Richard de Wych, (modern Droitwich), was born there in 1197 and worked hard for his yeoman father to restore the family fortunes. Later he studied at Oxford and Paris and then in Bologna as an ecclesiastical lawyer. When he returned to England in 1235, he was made Chancellor of Oxford and eventually Chancellor to the Archbishop of Canterbury, Edmund of Abingdon. When Richard eventually became Bishop of Chichester, he was seen as a model diocesan bishop: progressing around his diocese on foot, visiting and caring for his clergy and people, generally being accessible to all who needed his ministry. He insisted that the sacraments be administered without payment and with a proper dignity. Whilst on a recruitment campaign for the Crusades, he fell ill at Dover and died there on 3 April 1253 and his mortal remains were translated to Chichester on this day in the year 1276.

Thought for the week:

*Day by day, dear Lord, of thee three things I pray:
to see thee more clearly, love thee more dearly,
follow thee more nearly, day by day.*

Richard of Chichester

If there is something or someone we should call to mind in our prayers, please phone Pat Fisher on 020 8289 8348 or the Church Office (020 8676 4550).
