10 February 2019 Fourth Sunday before Lent

Collect

Lord of the hosts of heaven,
our salvation and our strength,
without you we are lost:
guard us from all that harms or hurts
and raise us when we fall;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

1 Corinthians 15: 1-11

Now I should remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you—unless you have come to believe in vain.

For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to someone untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace towards me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them—though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

Luke 5: 1-11

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, 'Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.' Simon answered, 'Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.' When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signalled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, 'Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!' For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, 'Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.' When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

I, the Lord of sea and sky,
I have heard my people cry.
All who dwell in dark and sin
my hand will save.
I, who made the stars of night,
I will make their darkness bright.
Who will bear my light to them?
Whom shall I send?

*Here I am, Lord. Is it I, Lord?
I have heard you calling in the night.
I will go, Lord, if you lead me.
I will hold your people in my heart.*

I, the Lord of snow and rain,
I have borne my people's pain.
I have wept for love of them.
They turn away.
I will break their hearts of stone,
give them hearts for love alone.
I will speak my word to them.
Whom shall I send?

Here I am, Lord...

I, the Lord of wind and flame,
I will tend the poor and lame.
I will set a feast for them.
My hand will save.
Finest bread I will provide till their hearts be satisfied.
I will give my life to them.
Whom shall I send?

Here I am, Lord...

Dan Shutte, based on Isaiah 6

Prayer Matters: 10th February 2018 4th Sunday before Lent

We keep in our prayers this week:

Our community here at All Saints - as we await the news of who our new incumbent will be, praying for the parish that they will leave behind; that they may have a team to support them as we have done during their vacancy. We give thanks for all involved in the selection process.

All who struggle at this time - for the homeless; those in prison; families and individuals struggling to make ends meet; for the lonely; housebound; those suffering from mental illness; all facing an uncertain future. We pray too for all who go out of their way to support people in need.

Peace - for all involved in peace-making throughout the world, remembering at this time the people of Venezuela. We give thanks for the work of FRRME in the Middle East.

Schools - we pray for our local schools, the pupils and staff. Praying especially for the developing partnership between Rosendale and Turney schools with All Saints and all involved.

Foundation for Relief & Reconciliation in the Middle East - For the work of Faiz Jerjees, Chaplain of St George's Church in Baghdad who met recently with the newly appointed Prime Minister of Iraq, Adil Abdul-Mahdi, and talked about his reconciliation work in Baghdad. For his ministry at St George's Church, the medical clinic in the church grounds free to people of all faiths and the work the church does in providing food packages and rental assistance to poorer members of the congregation. Those to be baptised: Edith Townsend & Gray Quimby.

Those who are sick or in need: Gina Vaughan, Liz Ray, Isobel Ward, Rosemary Cave, Aldwyn Holley, Ben, and those who support and care for them.

Those who have died recently: Carol Bell and Michelle Antia from the L'Arche community. Michelle's funeral will be at St Matthew's RC Church on Tuesday 12th February at 9am. For the L'Arche Community as they mourn Carol's and Michelle's passing. Mimi Heinrichs (funeral at 2.30pm on Tuesday 12 February at St Leonard's Church Streatham). Tom Garrud.

Those whose year's mind falls at this time: Donald Fletcher, Peter Morrow, Michael Porter, Elizabeth Stead, Leslie Newport and Ada Fifield.

This Sunday's flowers are given to the Glory of God by Philippa Hobson in memory of Jessie Gotobed.

Commemorated at this time: Cyril (d.869) & Methodius (d.885), 14 February

Cyril and his older brother Methodius were born in Thessalonica, both developing in their youth the ability to speak several languages, including Slavonic, a language not yet written down, at least in an alphabet understood by others. Cyril created the Slavonic alphabet and set about translating the Scriptures and other liturgical texts into the language. They established the church in Moravia, but in so doing entered into the controversy between indigenous and centralised religious practices and worship. Cyril died on this day in the year 869, whilst the brothers were in Rome, there to obtain papal approval for their evangelistic work. Methodius returned to Moravia as archbishop, where he completed the translation of the Bible and continued the missionary work. He died in the year 885. Today they are revered in both Christian East and West and, as such, are seen as patron saints of ecumenism between these two great branches of Christendom.

Thought for the week:

He has shown you, O mortal, what is good. And what does the Lord require of you?
To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God.

Micah 6:8
