Acts 2.1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, 'Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power.' All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, 'What does this mean?' But others sneered and said, 'They are filled with new wine.'

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: 'Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: "In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams.

Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

John 14.8-17

Philip said to him, 'Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied.' Jesus said to him, 'Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, "Show us the Father"? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it.

'If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you for ever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.

Redundant Laptops

ASWD is active in the support of Lambeth's 26 refugees families. Now settled into various schools and academies, the teenage children have identified a need for computers to help with their homework. If you have an unused and unwanted old laptop in your attic, or under the stairs, please contact either Gwenda or Alan. They will ensure each laptop is forensically cleaned before passing them onto a very grateful student. Such generosity will most certainly "make a difference". Prayer Matters

Pentecost : 9 June 2019

We celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Let us be filled with the Spirit of Life, the Spirit of Love and the Spirit of Belonging.

Please keep in your prayers this week:

All Saints - for Alan and his family as they soon settle into All Saints and West Dulwich.

Community - for the Herne Hill Welcomes Refugees, supporting a family who arrived from dangerous conditions in Lebanon back in December 2018. Their application has been approved by the Home Office and the family have settled in well in the area. 300 people turn out for the meeting in May, giving the family a rapturous welcome.

To be Baptised: Patrick Enock-Brown & George Ayton.

Charity of the week: L'Arche London - Loneliness

We give thanks to L'Arche for being part of the All Saints family. L'Arche believes in the power of relationships to transform the lives of those whose deepest suffering is not their disability but their experience of isolation and loneliness. L'Arche celebrates people with learning disabilities and in doing so creates places of belonging where some of the most vulnerable people can lead full lives and contribute to society. 50% of people with a learning disability experience chronic loneliness, compared to 15-30% of the general population.

Those who are sick or in need: Ben, Rosemary Cave, Isabelle Backs, Audrey Taylor, Joseph Lunn and those who support and care for them, and those on our long-term sick list.

Those who have died recently: Jennifer Everest; and for all who mourn.

Those whose Year's Mind falls at this time: Paul Singh (1993), Ada Cripps (2003) and Mary Fox (1997).

This Sunday's flowers are given to the Glory of God by Edwina Nummey for Pat & Paul Singh.

Commemorated this week on 11 June - Barnabas the Apostle

Though not named among the twelve apostles of the evangelists, Barnabas emerges in the Acts of the Apostles as one of the most significant of their number. He sold his estate and gave the proceeds to the Church, since all things were to be held in common, and clearly became a leader. He is described as a Levite from Cyprus so, like his friend Paul, was from the Greek world rather than that of Palestine, and he introduced Paul to the leaders of the Church in Jerusalem. He was sent to Antioch apparently to guide the Christians there in their relations with non-Jewish converts, promoting the concept of all being one in Christ. He broke with Paul to go to Cyprus and tradition has it that he was martyred there in the year 61.

Thought for the week:

Unless the eye catch fire, The God will not be seen.

Unless the ear catch fire The God will not be heard.

Unless the tongue catch fire The God will not be named.

Unless the heart catch fire, The God will not be loved.

Unless the mind catch fire, The God will not be known.

William Blake (1757-1827) from Pentecost

If you would like prayer for yourself or another, please contact Mark Stevens (020 8670 8105) or leave a message at the Church Office (020 8676 4550). We will pray for that person on Prayer Matters for the following four weeks. If further prayer is requested the name will be placed on the Church's Prayer Board and prayed for at midweek services.
