

A Note on Spiritual Communion from Robin Yates

As churches are now shut, by live-streaming All Saints' Eucharist we may all fully share the service as a Spiritual Communion. Historically, this is the way in which Christians, who cannot take our Lord Jesus' hallowed bread and wine, nonetheless celebrate Eucharistically in him. Spiritual Communion can call us to deepen our understanding of, our trust in and love for Christ in this Blessed Sacrament for which we yearn. Here are two links for more information:

en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Spiritual\_Communion

www.churchofengland.org/sites/default/files/2020-03/Guidance%20on%20Spiritual%20Communion%20and%20Coronavirus.pdf