Dear friends

The decision on Tuesday by the Church of England to suspend acts of worship came as a shock to many but it is important that the Church takes public health seriously. Over the coming weeks, we will aim to provide as much spiritual and pastoral support as possible, and to find safe ways to maintain a compassionate and prayerful connection with one another.

While Sunday morning services have been suspended, the church will be open every day for prayer for as long as possible. Chairs have been spaced out in church. Morning Prayer will be said on week days at 9.15am. Prayer During the Day is available for private use at home. Click the This Sunday box on our website: <http://all-saints.org.uk/notices/>

We are working to stream worship services on the internet and will let you know how to access this as soon as we can. Please make sure that you are subscribed to our weekly email This Sunday at All Saints. If you're not, there is a link on the home page of our website at <http://all-saints.org.uk/>.

We are also gathering information about those who need support or can give support. If you know of someone who may need help at this time, please email pastoral@all-saints.org.uk. Equally, you may be able to help in some way – such as with shopping. If so, please email helpinghands@all-saints.org.uk. Please note, these email addresses are not currently operational but we expect they will be by Monday 23 March.

We are at the beginning of an unexpected and difficult journey, but I am confident that we will work effectively together. Let us hold one another in our thoughts and prayers, as we move forward, trusting that God will guide and support us in the days to come.

In Christ

Alan Everett
