Isaiah 35.3-6

Strengthen the weak hands, and make firm the feeble knees.
Say to those who are of a fearful heart,
'Be strong, do not fear!
Here is your God.
He will come with vengeance, with terrible recompense.
He will come and save you.'

Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened,
and the ears of the deaf unstopped; then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the speechless sing for joy.
For waters shall break forth in the wilderness,
and streams in the desert;

2 Timothy 4.5-17

As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully.

As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

Do your best to come to me soon, for Demas, in love with this present world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica; Crescens has gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. Only Luke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, for he is useful in my ministry. I have sent Tychicus to Ephesus. When you come, bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas, also the books, and above all the parchments.

Alexander the coppersmith did me great harm; the Lord will pay him back for his deeds. You also must beware of him, for he strongly opposed our message.

At my first defence no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth.

Luke 10.1-9

After this the Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. He said to them, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest. Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road.
Whatever house you enter, first say, "Peace to this house!" And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you. Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house. Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; cure the sick who are there, and say to them, "The kingdom of God has come near to you."

Prayer Matters

Please keep in your prayers this week:

All in health services

As we celebrate St Luke the physician, we pray for all working to protect and preserve our health, physical, mental and spiritual.

The Church wardens and PCC

Following last week's APCM we give thanks for all those elected to serve, both those continuing and those newly elected.
We pray for wisdom as they support the ministry team, seeking to further the mission of our church, and especially the commitment towards inclusion and equality.

The All Saints community

May we support each other with friendship and love. We pray especially in these difficult times for those with worries over job security and money.

United Nations Day, 24th October

Marking the 75th anniversary of the UN set up to maintain international peace and security, to solve economic, social, cultural and humanitarian problems and to promote respect for human rights. We pray that the UN's work will continue to be effective.

World tensions

Especially between Armenia and Azerbaijan. We pray for those involved in keeping the peace and that further conflict may be avoided.

Charity of the week: 4ALL

Building Community in West Dulwich. We give thanks for all 4All's work and activities in our community. 4-all.org.uk

Those who are sick or in need

Russell Jenkins, Ola, Grace Stedman, Lorraine Falcon Gaughan, Rosemary Cave and any known to us; for those who support and care for them.

Those with longer term needs Jonny Davies (give thanks for continuing recovery), Wisdom Kari Kari, Do Jones, Chris Worden, Isabelle Backs, Anthony Backs, Gina Vaughan, Hyacinth Brown, Ben.

Those who have died recently

Chris Glasson, with prayers for Carole and all of their family; Claire Parkyns Wood, with prayers for Becky Hickey and her family; and for all who mourn.

Those whose year's mind falls at this time

Winifred Watkins.

Commemorated on 18 October

Luke the Evangelist

Luke was a dear friend of the apostle Paul, and is mentioned by him three times in his letters. Paul describes him as 'the beloved physician' and, in his second letter to Timothy, as his only companion in prison.
He is believed to be the author of two books of the New Testament, firstly the gospel which stands in his name and also the Acts of the Apostles. Luke's narrative has a pictorial quality and shows the sequential pattern from the nativity through to the death and resurrection. As a Gentile, Luke makes clear that the good news of salvation is for all, regardless of sex, social position or nationality. Traditionally, Luke wrote his gospel in Greece and died in Boeotia at the age of eighty-four.

Thought for the week

But the crowds learned about it and followed him. He welcomed them and spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and healed those who needed healing.
Luke 9:11
